Jerald Melberg, Juror, Judge, and Gallery Owner

“Thirty years ago, Jerald Melberg resigned from his prestigious post as curator of the Mint Museum to open his own gallery and hasn’t looked back since. At the time, the Mint Museum was temporarily closing to renovate its main site and create an addition to its Randolph Road location, so it was an opportune time for a career move – and the shift has been a good one. The Jerald Melberg Gallery, located on Sharon Amity Road, features art from mid-to-late career living artists who the gallery builds and promotes, such as Brian Rutenberg, Wolf Kahn, and Susan Grossman. It also represents art garnered from the estates of renowned mid-late 20th century American artists, including Romare Bearden, Robert Motherwell, Esteban Vicente, and Hans Hofmann.”

Kim Lordier,

Workshop Instructor
Pastel Society of America,
Signature Member
Native to the San Francisco Bay Area and a graduate of the Academy of Art University, San Francisco CA, Kim Lordier combines keen observation and sensitivity to her award winning landscapes. After college, Lordier flew for a major air carrier, experiencing many domestic and foreign locales, while keeping up with painting and portraiture. After the events of September 2001 she turned to painting full time.

97 artists, all members of one or more of the three North Carolina Pastel Societies, submitted paintings to the 3rd Annual NC Juried Pastel Exhibition. 251 images were entered via CaFÉ, a web-based service. 90 paintings were selected for exhibition by the juror, Jerald Melberg.

The 2014 PPS Team for the 3rd Annual NC Juried Pastel Exhibition thanks each artist who submitted their work to this exhibition.

Congratulations to the artists who were selected. To those whose work was not selected, you are encouraged to paint what you love and enter the 2015 NC Juried Pastel Exhibition.

Many thanks to the Cornwell Center and staff for welcoming the 2014 NC Pastel Exhibition. The 2014 artists are the first exhibitors in the newly created and beautiful Cornwell Art Gallery. The 2014 Team members and the Piedmont Pastel Society are happy to be affiliated with an organization that supports the Arts in Charlotte.
