

February 1, 2011

Call for Artists

Western Wake Artists' Studio Tour invites new and returning artists to submit their applications. This year's open studio tour will take place on November 12-13 and will be accompanied by "Meet the Artist" exhibitions at the Halle Cultural Arts Center in Apex and at the new Cary Community Arts Center.

Deadline to apply: May 2, 2011

Notification of jury acceptance (for new artists only): May 16, 2011

Fee: $125 for new artists. $100 for returning artists

We strive for a well-rounded tour and seek quality work in all media. In addition to painting and works on paper, we welcome textile, pottery, photography, sculpture, jewelry, mixed media, stained glass, metal works, etc. Original works only, please.

THE OBJECTIVES OF THE WESTERN WAKE ARTISTS' STUDIO TOUR ARE

To assist Western Wake County artists in marketing their work

To increase public awareness of the quality and diversity of art created in our community

To promote educational experiences for attendees, who meet artists and see them at work

REQUIREMENTS

Participants must be professional working artists with exhibition experience living in Western Wake County (Apex, Cary, Fuquay Varina, Holly Springs, Morrisville, etc.)

Have only original work or reproductions thereof. Work from kits, molds, and reproductions of works by other artists will not be acceptable.

Have accessible studio space able to accommodate up to 100 visitors in one weekend.

Be present both days of the tour.

Volunteer at least 10 hours to assist with the organization of this tour (i.e. sponsorships, exhibition installation and de-installation, opening receptions, brochure distribution, etc.)

Assist with sponsorship solicitations.

A list of the benefits for participating artists is on our website.

New and returning artists may download applications at <http://www.wwast.org/applications.html>

Contact info@wwast.org

The Western Wake Artists' Studio Tour - P.O. Box 6 - Cary, NC 27512 - www.wwast.org