JUROR OF ENTRIES AND
JUDGE OF AWARDS
LIZ HAYWOOD-SULLIVAN

Liz Haywood-Sullivan

Workshop Instructor, Juror and Judge of Awards

We are honored to welcome you Liz!

Liz Haywood-Sullivan, PSA-MP, IAPS/MC, is a representational landscape artist dedicated to the pastel medium. Her award-winning paintings are defined by light, atmosphere and graphic compositions, which often feature the interplay between man and the environment. In 1996, she left the design world to follow her passion for fine art and since then has worked as a professional artist, art educator, and arts advocate. Liz was the third President of the International Association of Pastel Societies (IAPS) from 2013 to 2017. During her tenure she managed three Biennial IAPS Conventions and twelve Juried Exhibitions. She serves on the Board of Advisors for The Pastel Journal and continues as a board member of IAPS. Liz's paintings are collected worldwide and have also appeared in art magazines around the world. She appears in numerous books, including authoring Painting Brilliant Skies and Water (Northlight Books 2013), recently translated into Chinese. Liz teaches nationally and internationally, along with judging and demonstrating for numerous art organizations.

*This amazing collaboration of three Pastel Societies could not have been made possible without the efforts of our hardworking committee, the kindness of

Thank You!*

With Appreciation

This could not have happened without each and everyone of you!
